NOTICE

It has come to the notice of the School Administration that some of the private entities / individuals are engaged into the business activity of plying vehicles for transportation of the students of the school claiming to have been authorised in this regard by the School Administration. In order to clarify the status/stand of the School Administration, it to bring to your notice that there is no such policy under which the School Administration authorises anyone to ply vehicles for transportation of the school students. For removal of doubts, if any, it is further clarified that the School Administration, in the manner whatsoever shall not be responsible, accountable, liable with regards to any private agency / entity for any private vehicle used for transportation of the school students. No private person, individual, agency and/or agent has ever been authorised in this regard as such by the School Administration. This has been already been repeated time again and also displayed at the notice board of the School.
